

Dinosaurs Topic Web: Autumn Term

Year 2/3 Honey Bees

English

Non fiction : We will be researching dinosaurs & looking at the features of non fiction books.

Harry & his bucketful of dinosaurs— visit from the author.

Little Red Hen Performing, re-writing and adapting.

Creative writing: Creating our own Dinosaur, describing movement, appearance, sound and character.

Poetry: Autumn poetry

Narrative: Write an exciting story set in the land before time. We will continue to use interesting connectives, speech marks and adjectives.

P.E.

The children will have P.E. on a Tuesday afternoon.

This term their skills development will be multiskills and Fitness.

Religious Education

Harvest Festival-Little Red Hen

Christianity

Trip to the church

What do Christians think of God?

Baptism

Christmas— Nativity Story

Nativity Play Y2 Christingle Y3

PHSE

Values-Generosity & Compassion

Kindness workshops

Circle Time to share worries etc and discuss different ways to deal with them.

Topic: Dinosaurs

The children would like to find out about:

How do dinosaur bones turn into fossils?

How tall was the tallest one?

When did they become extinct?

About water dinosaurs

How did they die out?

Which was the fastest dinosaur?

How big is a dinosaur's stomach?

And many more things!

Maps – Where have dinosaurs been found?

Art

Andy Goldsworthy collages with natural materials

e.g leaves & conkers

Trip to the Weir Gardens

Science

Rocks

Rock detectives-finding out how rocks are used in our local environment.

Trip to the graveyard to see how some rocks have worn away over time.

Identifying rocks

Investigating volcanoes

Finding out about fossils

Being palaeontologists

Mathematics

Counting, partitioning and calculating

Securing number facts, understanding shapes.

Handling data and measures

Create a class pictogram or graph of favourite dinosaurs

Measure the estimated length or height of a dinosaur.

Calculating, measuring and understanding shape.

Timetables

2s, 5s & 10s Y2

4s, 3s & 8s Y3

Swimming

The Year 2 Children will be swimming every Friday morning up until Christmas