

STRETTON SUGWAS BEE

Newsletter – Friday 25th January 2019

Happy Birthday to.....
 Emmie A. & Bethan W.

Dear Parents and Guardians,

I can't believe how quickly this week has gone! As you will read overleaf, we had a fantastic time taking 30 children to the Young Voices concert. It is one of my favourite trips that we do at Stretton and the children were fantastic for the whole day and night. Their behaviour was impeccable and they were really good company to have around for the day. I know the parents who came to the performance were blown away by the performances...particularly the mums with Tony Hadley taking centre stage! Thank you everyone for their support. Please do keep coming along to the book fair...not only is it a good opportunity to restock books at home, but the more books we sell...the more books we can add to our school library!

Have a great weekend
 Alex Davies

Young Voices Birmingham 2019

On Monday our Young Voices choir travelled to Birmingham to take part in an amazing concert alongside thousands of other children from schools across the region. This is the third year in a row that Stretton Sugwas have taken part in the event and it just gets better each year!

The children rehearsed all afternoon and then wowed the audience of parents and family members with a fantastic show in the evening.

Stretton parents this year were especially lucky as some of them even had front row seats plus there was a surprise appearance from Tony Hadley (of Spandau Ballet fame).

The children (and staff) all had a great time singing and dancing their hearts out throughout the concert. We're looking forward to Young Voices 2020!

Sports News

We have had a successful week of sport this week. A team took part in a Quick Sticks (hockey) tournament at Whitecross on Monday. The children played really well in their 3 matches, losing one match but winning two others!

Also our netball team took part in a tournament at Whitecross on Thursday. They played matches against Lord Scudamore, Trinity, Broadlands and Mordiford schools. They drew in one match but won all 3 of their other matches which has secured them a place in the School Winter Games event!

Well done to all of the children that took part in these events this week!

Club Stretton After School Club

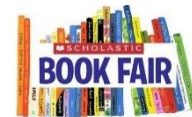

As from Monday 28th January we are asking parents of children that attend After School Club to please come into the music room and sign their children out on the signing out sheet that you will find in there.

This is a safeguarding measure following several instances where parents have turned up to collect their children and have taken them without informing a member of staff.

Missing trainers

Susie in Year 3 has lost a pair of trainers, they are quite new and she would be very grateful if you could have a check at home to see if they may have been bought home by mistake please.

They are neon blue, pink & yellow Velcro trainers from Clark's in a size 1. Thank you.

Thank you, if you have already visited the book fair this week. If you haven't had a chance to visit yet don't worry it will be open again after school next Tuesday and Wednesday after school.
